

Jacob continued his journey from Bethel to the city of Haran.
Whom did he meet watering the flocks at the well outside the city?

Cross out the letters in the answer to each definition. Write the remaining letters in order—top to bottom and left to right in the boxes.

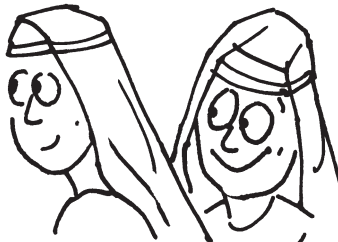

- Animal that gives us wool
- Liquid that comes from a well
- Something you wear on both feet
- It lights the night sky
- Dry, barren land
- A water bird
- Where we plant vegetables or flowers..

R	S	H	A	E	C	E	P
W	A	H	T	E	E	R	L
D	S	H	A	O	E	S	U
G	M	O	H	T	O	N	E
D	E	S	E	R	R	T	O
F	D	L	U	C	A	B	K
G	A	A	R	D	E	N	N

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Draw lines to match the puzzle pieces.

① Jacob worked for Laban

② Laban asked Jacob

③ Jacob said he would work

④ Laban

⑤ After 7 years Laban had a feast

⑥ That evening he gave Jacob

⑦ Jacob found in the morning

⑧ Jacob went to Laban

⑨ Laban said he couldn't

⑩ He agreed to give Rachel

⑪ In a week Laban

⑫ Jacob worked

⑬ Jacob loved

for a month with no pay.

for 7 more years' service.

Rachel more than Leah.

7 years without pay if he could marry Rachel.

and gave his daughter to Jacob.

he had been deceived.

give his younger daughter first.

Leah, not Rachel.

to ask why.

gave Rachel to Jacob.

accepted this.

to name his wage for working.

Name _____